what a comfort it is to have ready at hand a remedy that never fails to relieve Constipation, and that, without pain or discomfort, and almost immediately cures headaches, and dispels every symptom of Dyspepsia.
Such a remedy is found in Simmons Liver Regulator—not a sweetened compound to nauseate, or an intoxicating beverage to cultivate an alcoholic appetite, but a medicine pleasant to the taste, and perfectly harmless when given to the smallest child. S. L. K. never disappoints. It possesses the virtues and perfec-tions of a reliable remedy of the kind endorsed by eminent physicians.

"It affords me pleasure to add my testimony to those you receive annually in reference to your valuable medicine. I consider Simmons Liver Regulator the best family medicine on the market. I have prescribed it with excellent results."

SHE RECOILED, BUT DIDN'T KICK.

Heroic Conduct of a Tall, Graceful Girl at the Supreme Test of Love.

Two tall, graceful girls strolled slowly along the beach earnestly conversing.
They were conspicuous in the throng, and many an admiring glance was turned toward them as they came to the water. A cloudless sky was reflected in calm waters below, while scarcely a breath of air was stirring.

The girl in the pure white blazer was doing most of the talking.

"It is all very well," she was saying,
"to insist that you would die for the man you love, but the sacrifice is quite another thing."

The girl with the blue yachting cap staggered her shoulders.

"You speak," she observed, "like one who had made the sacrifice."

"I have the right so to speak."

Affecting recollections poured tumultuously over the soul of the girl in the white blazer. Her lips trembled and the superb eyes bent upon the head of the girl with the blue yachting cap.

The girl in the blue cap smiled haughti-ly.

"Indeed," she sarcastically retorted,
"how very interesting! And how does it feel to actually die for the man you love?"

Reproachfully the girl in the white blazer directed her gaze upon the girl with the blue yachting cap.

"You shall not make light of it."

"Forgive me."

For a time they walked in silence.
Both were deeply affected, the one filled with remembrances of the past; the other her resentment gone, with womanly sympathy.

"Tell me about it, Ethel."

The girl in the blue yachting cap was tenderly persuasive.

"It was worse than dying for him, Clara."

With a quick movement the tears were dashed from the superb eyes, and the girl with the white blazer faced her companion.

"It was at Easter, Clara. You remember the dear, bright fellow I was engaged to then. One evening but a short while before he said he did not believe I bore him the deep love I should.
I challenged him to name a sacrifice I would not make for his sake. With an insight into feminine character which was Mephistophelian in its subtlety, he dared me to do that which causes every woman's heart to recoil with horror.
But I did it."

They had paused in their walk, and were looking at each other fixedly.

"Ethel!"

"Yes, Clara, I did it. I went to church that Easter morning, sat in the very front seat, and I never looked around during the service."

The girl in the blue yachting cap drew a deep, tremulous breath.

"Ethel!"

"Yes, Clara."

"You are a sublime heroine. Can you forget my hasty words?"

"I can, Clara."

And the little wavelets lapped the snowy beach with drowsy sound, while all the throng gazed in admiration at the graceful girls.—Detroit Tribune.

Did the Ancient Jews Play Ball?
Herod the Great was the first Jewish king who imported into his realm Roman modes of "society life." His theaters and arenas, after the Roman style, were not to the national taste in amusements, despite the fact that the former were, so to say, silently patronized by the Talmud in the saying, "Let us be grateful to the Romans for their establishment of theaters, as they keep the public from mischief, which Satan finds for idle folks." The arenas were not patronized on account of the inhuman performances given there. The favorite Jewish national game at that time was the kador, or ball.

Whether it was played as a sort of lawn tennis or as national baseball is not recorded. That the game was not allowed by some rabbis to be played on the Sabbath is a proof that the game required skill and labor. That the game was patronized by the Talmud we infer from its not being included among those against which the Talmud opened a crusade, condemning them as "gambling games."—Boston Transcript.

Unconscious Comment.
Mr. C. was particularly deliberate in the matter of invoking the divine blessing upon the family meals, and when the repast was unusually good this was a trying ordeal to the three young sons.
On one occasion there were strangers—and chicken—at dinner, and this function was longer than ever. At its conclusion the three-year-old son drew a long breath, and fervently but audibly remarked, "That's a good job done."—
New York Tribune.

Or old or young, or grave or gay,
Those who now let their teeth decay,
With breath we can't endure;
The thought their after life will haunt,
That they neglected SOZODONT,
That would have kept all pure.

THE GOLD BUGS CO-OPERATE.

The Democratic State Convention of Kansas endorsed the Weaver electoral ticket and joined with the Populists in nominating a Congressional ticket. A faction of delegates claiming to be Straight-out Cleveland men bolted the convention. This faction at once commenced to play into the hands of the Harrison men. Circulars and documents declaring against fusion and favoring another convention, issued by the Straight-out Democrats, were distributed throughout the State by Harrison postmasters, and railroad companies in the interest of Harrison issued all the passes required to secure a large attendance at the Bolters or Straight-outs Convention. Farmers wrote to the Chairman of the Republican Central Committee for passes to the Democratic Convention, and the requests were complied with by W. M. Mitchell, a member of the State Board of Railroad Commissioners. Mitchell inclosed the passes in letters written on the Board of Railroad Commissioners' letter heads, and advising the person to whom the pass was sent "to stand up for Kansas and straight Democracy." By this means a large number of persons were induced to attend the Bolters' State Convention, which met at Topeka last Friday. They were encouraged in every way by the Harrison men, yet the convention, which was composed of several hundred malcontents and ex-Federal office holders, had no effect whatever on the Fusionists and will not change a vote. The Democratic State Central Committee repudiates the action of the Bolters, and as it has been conclusively shown that the latter were scheming with the Harrison men, they have no influence and will not poll one per cent. of the vote of the State.

HARRISON WOULD VETO A FREE COINAGE BILL.

Some well-meaning people who look upon the restoration of silver to its former standard as of far greater importance than the success of any political party, are being led by politicians to believe that Harrison is in favor of free coinage and would readily sign a bill for that purpose. While Harrison's letter of acceptance proves that he is with Sherman and the gold men against the re-monetization of silver at the present ratio of 16 to 1 or, in fact, any ratio whatever that is not satisfactory to the European bondholder, who, it is said, paid half a million dollars to have the Congress of the United States demonetize it, men pretending to have the interests of the State at heart, but who, as a general rule, prefer a place at the public crib to free coinage, endeavor to delude the unwary into the belief that the President is for free silver.

Senator H. M. Teller of Colorado, who had better opportunities of knowing how the President stands on the silver question than the power-plated Nevada political hacks who are trying to palm themselves on the unsophisticated as genuine silver men, in a letter to H. M. Slater, President of the Colorado Silver League, says:

"Harrison uses the great power conferred on him by the people to thwart the wishes of the people by preventing legislation in their interest touching the silver question, and who has for more than two years past declared his intention to veto a free coinage Act should it pass both branches of Congress."

Do the miners, the farmers, the people of Nevada, who feel the depression caused by the low price of silver, desire to extend the term of office of a President who is prepared at all times to veto a free coinage bill?

THE GOLD BUGS FIGHTING STEWART.

The gold press of the country for the last eighteen months have advocated the defeat of Senator Stewart on account of the trouble he is giving the enemies of silver by constantly advocating free coinage. With Stewart out of the way the gold trust would be safe for some time to come. Bearing on this point the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, the leading Republican paper of the West, says:

"Senator Stewart of Nevada has done the Republican party a kind deed by coming out for Weaver. It has been dreams of getting rid of him for some time on account of his anti-Republican vagaries with regard to the currency."

The ravings of the gold bugs against Stewart are reason sufficient why the people of Nevada should stand by him in this contest with the enemies of their chief industry.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS!
Matters of Interest From Home and Abroad.

To Celebrate Columbian Day.

CADIZ, October 10.—Enormous crowds watched the departure of the gunboat Conde Valderro, conveying Queen Regent Christiana and the royal party for Huelva, where they will take part in the Columbus celebration. The gunboat was escorted by a fleet of foreign warships. When the war ship arrived off Huelva she was met by the Conde Valderro, and the municipal authorities, diplomats who are visiting Huelva and a number of other dignitaries. Twenty-three Spanish and foreign men of war ranged in line and as the gunboat with the royal party on board entered the bay the nearest warship fired a royal salute. This was repeated by the next ship in line and so on until every one of twenty-three vessels had saluted little King Alfonso, who, with his mother, on the Conde Valderro gunboat, came to anchor off the Monastery La Rabida. The royal party was taken ashore and to the old monastery where Columbus received his first encouragement in the scheme which led to the discovery of the New World. After inspecting the venerable pile, the royal party returned to the gunboat, but then proceeded to Huelva. The Queen Regent and King Alfonso will embark in state to-morrow.

They Wished America Represented.

LONDON, October 10.—Saturday last Halim Tennyson sent a dispatch to United States Minister Lincoln, which reached him at Liverpool, asking him to be a pall bearer at the late poet's funeral. Minister Lincoln replied that he was just sailing for America and regretted most deeply that his departure prevented him from accepting the invitation and having the honor of representing his countrymen on this occasion. "So affecting to all the world and not less mournful to America than to England."

Lord Tennyson's family was anxious to have America represented among the pall bearers and to-day asked Mr. Henry White, Secretary of the American Legation, to act in place of Lincoln. White signified his acceptance of the invitation.

All the members of the Tennyson family assembled at Aldworth to-day and took a last look at the dead before the coffin was closed.

Everything Satisfactory.

WASHINGTON, October 10.—Minister Egan had an hour's conference with the President this morning. The President expressed deep gratification at the fair and honorable settlement of the recent differences between this country and Chile. Egan delivered a personal message from the President of Chile to the President of the United States, expressing joy and satisfaction at the equitable adjustment of the matters recently in controversy. The claims treaty negotiated by Egan is eminently satisfactory to the Administration and will be promptly submitted to the Senate for action. It covers a period of forty years and includes claims arising from revolutions in Chile and wars between that country, Peru and Bolivia. It has already been ratified by the Chilean Congress.

Do Not Like the Outlook.

NEW YORK, October 10.—A secret meeting of the Chairmen of the Republican State Committee, was held this afternoon. Forty-six of the 60 counties were represented. The registration of Republican voters was considered at length and it is said that most of the chairmen felt obliged to say they were greatly disappointed by the result of the first day's registration in the rural districts, the Democrats having made a much larger registration than the Republicans. They were earnestly appealed to by Warner Miller, Thos. Platt, Secretary McDonald and Senator Sherman to redouble their efforts for a full registration.

A Lively Wrangle.

NEW YORK, October 10.—A meeting of the Comstock Tunnel Company for the election of trustees was held this afternoon. Previous to the election there was an acrimonious discussion over the question of expense. During the past year $12,000 was disbursed for miscellaneous expenses outside of Denver. Gordon McDonald, one of the stockholders, called for an itemized list of expenses and a long and lively debate followed. It ended with the adoption of a resolution that all future expenses be itemized. The following were elected trustees: Elsie Dyer, Jr., Edward C. Boardman, Otto Lowengard, Eugene Seligman, Edward B. Storges, Herman Sturberg and Theodore Sutor. Robert Hobart Smith and George D. Hilyard were elected inspectors of election.

True American Lads.

NEW YORK, October 10.—Twenty-five Harlem school boys coming down Columbus Avenue to join the parade this morning saw a large English flag floating in front of a cigar store kept by an Englishman. No other flag was displayed and the boys demanded of the storekeeper that he either raise a United States flag beside the English one or lower the English flag. This he refused to do. After much angry discussion the boys pulled down the flag and tore it in pieces. The Englishman was very indignant but consoled himself with threatening to have the boys arrested for malicious destruction of property.

They Sail for the Atlantic.

ROBONDO, October 10.—The cruises Charleston and Baltimore which have been lying in the harbor since Friday were joined by the San Francisco this morning and at noon the three vessels sailed for Mazatlan, Mexico, bound for the Atlantic. Over 7,000 persons visited the cruises yesterday.

Could Not Serve Against His Fellow Workmen.

NEW YORK, October 10.—Private George H. Young of K Co., 47th Infantry, who has for seventeen years been a militiaman, decided to withdraw from the National Guard, his reason being that as a trade unionist he cannot do military duty against his fellow workmen, as in the case of the recent Buffalo strikes. Captain Hart of Young's Company said he would not be surprised to hear of an organized labor movement against the National Guard.

The Murderers Escaped.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., October 10.—At White Pine in Carter county, while a dance was in progress at the residence of Widow Cox two drunken strangers came in and tried to break up the dance. Floor Managers Charley Wilmoth and Harry Collins tried to eject them from the house, but the strangers drew revolvers and fired, killing Wilmoth and Collins and painfully wounding Will Heston. The murderers then mounted horses and escaped.

Lost With His First Vessel.

PORT TOWNSEND, October 10.—The ship Wm. A. Campbell, which was lost off the Hawaiian islands, sailed from this port August 2d for Queenstown laden with over 1,000,000 feet of lumber valued at $10,000, in command of E. Havener, who was accompanied by his young wife and child. The captain belonged to Thomaston, Me., and was about 28 years of age. The Campbell was his first vessel.

Will Be Present.

WASHINGTON, October 10.—A special meeting of the Cabinet was held this afternoon to arrange for a Federal participation in the Columbian celebration in New York this week. It was decided that all members of the Cabinet be present in New York some time during the week to represent the Administration. If President Harrison goes at all he will probably leave Washington to-morrow night.

Al New Superintendent.

SPRINGTOWN, Cal., October 10.—The Directors of the State Insane Asylum to-day elected Dr. Asa Clark Superintendent of the Asylum, to succeed Dr. H. U. Rucker, whose term has expired. Clark received three votes and Rucker two. Dr. Clark has been conducting a private insane asylum here, and also had a contract to care for the patients from Nevada and Arizona.

Fusion in Minnesota.

ST. PAUL, October 10.—The Democratic State Committee to-day endorsed four People's party candidates for Presidential Electors.

The Palace Hotel, which is well and favorably known to every old Nevada, is being conducted as usual by that veteran landlord, Al White, who spares neither pains nor purse to provide for the comfort and convenience of guests.

The importance of purifying the blood cannot be overestimated, for without pure blood you cannot enjoy good health. At this season nearly every one needs a good medicine to purify, vitalize, and enrich the blood, and we ask you to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. It strengthens and builds up the system, creates an appetite, and tones the digestion, while it eradicates disease. The peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation of the vegetable remedies used give to Hood's Sarsaparilla peculiar curative powers. No other medicine has such a record of wonderful cures. If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other instead. It is a Peculiar Medicine, and is worthy your confidence. Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold by all druggists. Prepared by C. L. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. 100 Doses One Dollar
